Lillian Luzinsky, Our Newest Mentor

Lillian is a versatile Designer and Creative Technologist, with a keen eye for clean and elegant design throughout all her projects. She possesses a wide range of skills, including UX/UI Design, Motion Graphics and Software Engineering. Lillian absolutely loves CSS and making things look great and user-friendly. Before transitioning into Front End Development, Lillian spent time as a Graphic Designer for property marketing and later shifted into freelancing, where she has been building her own business for 13 years providing high quality design services. Due to her diverse abilities, she is highly proficient in collaborating and communicating with cross-functional teams, and loves learning and refining her programming skills.
