Address Labs kick off!

Replacing our Opend project, Address Labs is now kicked off. Anyone can now contribute in analysing and showcasing open datasets linked to a location (ie. postcode, suburb, dwelling, etc). This will be an ongoing exercise complemented by regular fornightly sessions in the State Library.

New Code.Sydney Mentors/Fellows

We are pleased to announce new mentors/fellows who joined Code.Sydney's leadership team last few weeks.

- June Kongyang - Mentor
- Hadi Khalili - Fellow

We hope you continue Code.Sydney's tradition of serving the community first.
